EPATIENCE FOR THE AREIVAL OF SANTA ANNA— POLITICAL BULL—INTERNAL APPAIRS—VOTES OF THE VARIOUS STATES FOR SANTA ANNA—AP-POINTMENT OF GENERAL URAGA AS MINISTER TO MADRID—NEW TARIFF, ETC.

We have received files of Le Trait d'Union, published the city of Mexico, up to the 12th of March, and of a Universal to the 15th. The latest number of the Frest d'Union says polities are at a stand still, and will ain probably until the arrival of General Santa hom every one is impatiently expecting. All ial combination is abandoned, and General Lomhardini (the actual President) is determined to preserve, as far as possible, a passive attitude in his go ed. The Secretary of the Legation was to be M. José Bidalg, at present attached to the Legation at Rome. Concerning this appointment the Trait d'Union mays:—Public opinion would appear to show itself very sovere against General Uraga. By a sufficiently curious coincidence we yesterday received from the United States the New York Herald, of the 5th February. This journal, according to information, collected we know not where, contains a virulent accusation against the chief of the Guadalajara revolution. It alludes to a visit which General Uraga should have made to its offices; then it speaks of his voyage to Cuba, and finally accuses him of having received from Queen Christina a mission to revolutionize Mexico, and place that country under the forth this accusation, declares that it does not believe a word of it. But what can it say when it shall learn that General Uraga has just been named reprentative of Mexico to Spain? When it is recollected that even in in the negotiation of Anorazarco (that previous to the abdication of Cevallos), and in the subsequent acts, we cannot help being surprised at these chance shots, which, without rhyme or reason, come thus to produce connec-tions more or less singular.

The news from the States is of little importance. portion of the State of Chiapas has set at defiance the authority of the Governor Maldonado, thus following the example of the other States, which have, for the purpose of changing their internal administration, converted to their profit the general movement by which the whole republic was disturbed.

of the 10th February, has declared the country in dan-ger, and has given to the Governor of the State unlimited vers for the re-establishment of order in the republic, and for the consummation of the promises contained in

A correspondent of the Le Trait d'Union writes, under date of Tampico, March 2, that the city of Victoria had proposed to refuse the opening of its gates to the troops commanded by M. Barrios, a thing which might occa-sion a serious conflict. M. Barrios being sustained by the commandant of the port The Electoral College of Tam-pico refused receiving the deputation from Huastecs, which bad thus found itself excluded from the representation of Tamaulipas—equivalent to a refusal of annexa-tion. The State deputies, instead of assembling at Tampico, as they were to have done according to the programme of the resolution, had gone to assemble, on the 27th February, at the city of Victoria; but the governor of the latter city, warned in time, and assuming the matter as serious, had published, on the 28th, a oclamation annulling any reunion of the legislative body at Cindad Victoria. This measure was applauded by a great number of the inhabitants, who called it a rtmental coup d'état. The deputies, it seems, were sed to the annexation of Huanteca, and it was to ranted to meet at Cludad Victoria.

On Thursdry, 1st March, Vera Cruz and Tampico pub Sched the tariff by which these two ports intend to be governed. It is believed that both had agreed on the osition of this tariff, and they are completely in ac-

The States of Chiapas, Guerrero, Coabuila , New Leon, Yucatan, Queretaro, San Luis Potesi, Michoacan, Tamau-bpas, Oajaca, Mexico, Jalisco, Vera Cruz, Durango, and bla, the federal district, and the territory of Tlaxcala, had voted for the presidency of General Santa Anna, making, up to that day, a total of seventeen votes in his favor. The territory of Coleria had voted for General Ura-man. Bot a single State or Territory had voted for Ce-vallos.

The Rust of Winter is being Brightened by the peoping green, as the sap of spring is invited by the sun's warm smile; but is the rust of a December blight on poor human lungs and throat so chased away? Is the corroding damp on bright health, that dates its chill back in dark January, so covered with young life as my little grass plot in the yard, which has its medicine in a shower to-day and a sun burst to-morrow? You who have caught a mildew from a searching mould, that sends its fungus through the crack of a door, or clutches with its clammy ingers the nape of your neck, chilling your velvet skin to cold parciment—you who are in dispair for a shower or a sun-burst to give you the pouting life of my Hilach bush, know that Mra Jervis' Cold Candy has only been dozing, not sleeping, by not advertising much lately, in the cendidnet good will of its patrons. Its truthful ministrations are a good institution, and should be enrolled as such, being necessary to alleviate the pulmonic distresses of our climate. For coughs, colds, hoarzoness, &c., it is everywhere admitted excellent. Sold by Mrs. W. JERVIS, 366 Broadway; Zieber, Philadelphia; and by druggista generally.
